Notes:

- * Family membership includes principal member, partner and children under 18
-  Proof of status for student membership is required. Youth is 16 to 18. To comply with child protection requirements a parent or guardian must accompany under 18s.
- † Junior is under 16. A parent/guardian must be a full or social member.
- †† The number of board slots is limited, please check for availability. Users must be Club Members. If you already rent a slot(s), please give details of slot number and equipment stored overleaf. Equipment is stored at owner's risk. The Club also reserves the right, after giving not less than 3 months notice, to dispose of equipment being stored without payment. Board slots are payable for as long as a key is held.
- # A 2nd key is required for board storage. All keys remain the property of the Club. Day Tickets are £10 (max 3 visits - fill in a pre-printed envelope, place payment inside it then post in the slot in the Club foyer. Redeemable against annual subscription)

The Club relies on volunteers. Please speak to a Committee Member about how you can help - maintenance, pot-holes, grass-cutting, admin, safety boat, coaching etc.

Please make cheques/PO payable to WPSC (not WPWC) and send with this form to:

And finally

To get tax relief and keep our subs low the Club has to demonstrate that enough members windsurf at Watergrove at least once a month, or 12 times per year. Sailing with members elsewhere, or visiting to help with maintenance, events or meetings also qualify (see website 'Participation' explanation). We assume that you plan to meet this expectation. If you don't, then please give reasons below to explain why:

.....

Please contact our Membership Secretary (details overleaf) if you wish to pay by Standing Order. He will then provide our bank details.

We've made this change from previous years, as having this information online exposes us to possible fraud attempts.

WPSC is a not-for-profit Community Amateur Sports Club trading as WPWC.
